AGILE & OP MODEL TRANSFORMATION

JUNE 4, 2024

OFFERING SUMMARY

Agility & Operating Model Transformation

WHAT IT IS

Marketing teams and organizations which consistently deliver growth must operate efficiently and effectively. Outdated ways of working, often siloed across teams and weighed down by manual process, This offering looks across the people, process, change, and governance to deliver speed and effectiveness.

Tailored to client need, this offering covers org structure, process and automation, governance, and building change-ready organizations. It can be sold independently or alongside other major change projects, such as platform investment or customer data programs.

KEY BUSINESS OUTCOMES

- Reduced cost to deliver marketing team activities
- Decreased time to market for key marketing activities
- Increased efficiency of platform or marketing program investments

WEDGE

Can be delivered at less than $100k USD, to 'open the door'.

Agile & Op Model Transformation

These slides are ready for client presentation. The next section of this deck includes links to a talk track and other enablement materials

Your operating model is the foundation to helping you navigate a digital-first, experience economy.

Your people,
processes,
organization
design, and governance will determine if you succeed or fail.

PEOPLE

Your unique talent, skills,
and resources

A man in a blue shirt and a woman in a black top are in a meeting room. The man is pointing at a large wall covered in sticky notes and diagrams. The woman is holding a tablet and a water bottle. A large circular graphic with five dots and arrows is overlaid on the image. The word 'PROCESS' is written in the center of the circle.

PROCESS

Your ways of working to enable change

ORGANIZATION DESIGN

Team structure, roles,
and responsibilities

GOVERNANCE

How you define and manage priorities

Market forces are driving organizations to reconsider their operating models

Ability to be more responsive to ever-changing market and customer needs

Open collaboration and transparency replacing traditional management structures

Digitalization driving more people to participate – decision making is more collective

Change initiatives are more Continuous vs. One and Done

Agile has become mainstream... expanding from Agile teams to Agile organizations

“Transformation” hasn’t been equal

51%

Organizations who have stalled or abandoned transformations in the last 3 years

50-70%

The average “failure rate” of digital transformations, with somewhere between 40-60% of projects with a custom software engineering element running over cost.

49%

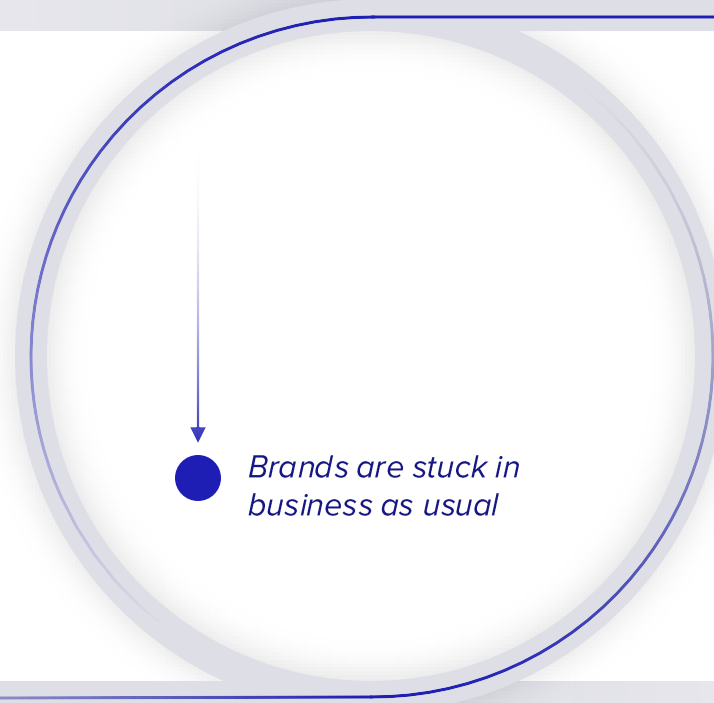

The percentage of digital leaders (CDOs, CMOs, eCommerce, CTOs) who identify “operating model” as their biggest challenge

Most brands struggle to drive change while delivering on business-as-usual priorities

FROM

- Traditional planning process
- Product driven marketing
- Siloed measurement
- Siloed goals and processes
- Quarterly Planning

TO

- Agile Planning Process
- Customer driven marketing
- Omni-channel measurement
- Integrated goals & processes
- Evergreen Programs

Moving from traditional operating models to adaptive models takes time and requires the old and new to co-exist

Where brands struggle

Fragmented ownership of customer experience

KPIs not aligned across teams

Product (vs. customer led) approach

Driving change while delivering business as usual

Reactive culture

Manual processes

Struggle with prioritization of initiatives

Gaps in skills and resource level

Not getting value out of technology investment

Resistance to change

Adaptive, experience-led organizations consistently outperform their peers...

Becoming an adaptive organization requires a fundamental shift in organizational mindset and behavior...

from opinions and conventions	→	validated learnings
from silos and hierarchical structures	→	collaborative teams
from long lead times (“big bang”)	→	rapid iterations
from broadcast messaging	→	individualized interactions
from rigid plans	→	responsive approach
from few large bets	→	many small experiments

Key is to balance focus on both technology and people

We connect people, process, and organizational capabilities to impact business transformation

HOW DO I KNOW
WHAT GOOD LOOKS LIKE?

Whether you are a global brand embarking on enterprise-wide CX transformation or a small organization simply looking to optimize day-to-day marketing operations, analyzing the current operating model is a necessary step within any change initiative.

MERKLE'S APPROACH

Operating Model Transformation

Operating model transformation is multi-dimensional and requires focusing on 3 interconnected elements.

Transformation work begins with a strategy to drive business and customer value.

Vision

Use Cases

Roadmap

OPERATING MODEL

An operating model is more than org design. Operating model transformation must consider multiple dimensions.

Change management is critical to ensuring operational change is sustained, value is realized, and teams thrive.

Define the Destination

What is the change strategy and how will you measure success?

Motivate Your Organization

How do you ensure belief and engagement in the change?

Evolve Your Capabilities

What new skills and training do you need to be successful?

Advance the Way You Operate

What needs to change in the way you work?

Getting Started.

“I need to look across my operating model to understand where I have opportunities to improve.”

Aligning regional marketing and content operations to accelerate global direct-to-consumer model

BUSINESS CHALLENGE

Nike had been undergoing a multi-year global transformation to a direct-to-consumer model. However, the company has faced challenges with siloed and uncoordinated regional organizations, roles, and processes. This has resulted in inconsistent messaging, cumbersome and lengthy time to market, and significantly hindered their responsiveness.

MERKLE SOLUTION

Merkle began with a focus on Nike's global content marketing processes, which drove a high volume of their overall marketing resource effort. We conducted in depth evaluations of regional needs and maturity, identified shared and unique needs to create greater transparency and alignment around global and regional content planning.

IMPACT

Standard marketing lexicon & greater clarity in ways of working between Global and Geo marketing teams

Embedded member-centric principles in content planning processes & ways of working

More timely change communications from global impacting regional processes (allowing adjustments to resourcing, product ordering, etc.)

Greater agility in responding to upstream & downstream shifts (e.g. strategic priorities, budgets, marketplace factors)

MAJOR THEME PARK

Designing a global customer-centric marketing organization.

BUSINESS CHALLENGE

A major theme park was on a journey to transform its Marketing & Sales operating model across international destinations and support enterprise rollout of an automated workflow management platform.

MERKLE SOLUTION

Merkle redesigned a major theme park's Marketing and Sales processes and collaboration model to enable greater Guest-centricity, automation, agility, and integration across its destinations and brands.

IMPACT

CWM adopted as single, enterprise standard for Marketing and Sales planning, design, & execution across 2 US brands (global locations adopted the following year)

Design & rollout of Enterprise Workflow Management platform (Workfront) across US & global destinations

Setup of Agile / networked teams within 6 months

Digital Ops redefined, played key role in enablement & orchestration of new agile operating structure

New operating model unlocks the value of technology investments

BUSINESS CHALLENGE

Despite having state-of-the-art Adobe marketing tools, T. Rowe Price was challenged with maximizing the value of their investments due to siloed team structures, inconsistent ways of working and poorly defined roles and responsibilities across teams.

MERKLE SOLUTION

Realigned marketing and digital organizations to eliminate duplicative roles and identify gaps in skills. Introduced Agile Marketing methodology to create cross-functional working teams. Applied and cascaded OKRs to guide team objective setting and prioritization.

IMPACT

Shifted enterprise mindset around “One Size Fits All” approach to Agile adoption/integration

Addressed key skillset gaps around Strategy, Marketing Operations, MarTech, Analytics

Developed a governance structure and methodology to consistently prioritize and manage programs across channels and teams

Scaled marketing function from single to multi-channel, lifecycle & segment driven; automated personalization triggers

Technology and operational agility unlock marketing effectiveness

BUSINESS CHALLENGE

Retail client was looking to drive sustainable business growth, moving from mass marketing to 1:1 lifecycle marketing by investing in four key pillars: 1) reinvigorate the Brand; 2) invest in Data and Technology; 3) drive Content publishing at scale; 4) create a modern-marketing culture and organizational agility.

MERKLE SOLUTION

Vision Alignment: Experience Strategy

Detailed experience maps to capture journey. Identified and prioritized greatest opportunities for experience personalization. Selection of 4 highest impact omni-channel Use Cases to maximize value unlock in FY21.

Operating Model Redesign

Detailed design of future state marketing organizational structure and processes to pivot to customer-centric marketing. Sequenced and prioritized operating model roadmap, 90-day transition plan, and staffing plan.

Business Case Development and Monthly Forecast

Detailed 3Y business case to estimate & track total value unlocked by MVP pilot programs, impact of launch delays, & forecast future results. Partnered with Measurement, Analytics, and Finance to provide monthly forecast updates based on incrementality measurement and actual results

Pilot Activation and Experience Roadmap

Design of 4 additional MVP use case pilots to expand usage, adoption, and value unlock from Adobe Marketing platforms. Strategic CX Roadmap prioritizing future use cases and post-MVP personalization opportunities.

IMPACT

The Merkle Way CX Maturity Models

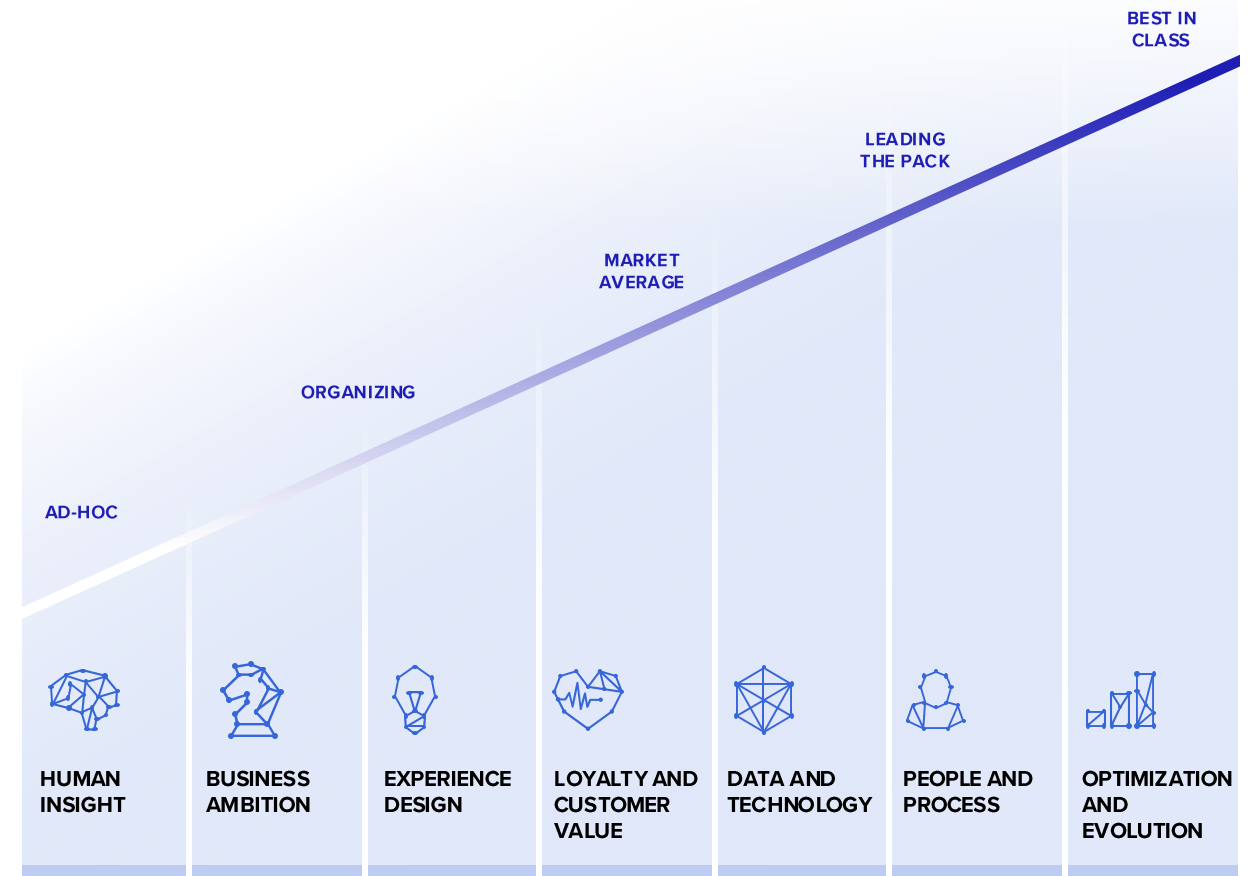

A set of maturity models used to assess client capabilities against industry benchmarks.

The Merkle Way is a singular approach to how we deliver CX maturity work for our clients. It integrates our cross-practice expertise into one maturity framework.

The Merkle Way is a comprehensive set of maturity models and corresponding surveys across framework pillars that are used in client assessments and industry benchmarking.

These maturity models are based on a uniform five-stage maturity framework consistent with industry standards, that can integrate with Schema®—our proprietary web-based survey platform.

TOTAL CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE PILLARS

The Merkle Way People & Process Maturity Model

We believe that adaptive organizations require mastery in 5 key pillars.

Leadership and Culture

Leadership is aligned around a customer-centric vision and invests in planning beyond short-term.

Customer-centricity

Workstreams, projects, processes and campaigns are actively connected back to creating value for clients.

Insights-led

The organization uses data and insights (e.g., program results, customer feedback) to inform enhancements

Collaborative, Self-Directed Teams

Teams are cross-functional in design and have the relevant expertise and resource level to deliver against objectives.

Iterative

The organization has a culture of continuous improvement, learning, innovation.

The Merkle Way People and Processes

Organization Model

This model is based on a uniform five-stage maturity framework that is consistent with industry standards. This framework helps evaluate organizational maturity and readiness.

EXAMPLE	1 Ad-hoc	2 Organizing	3 Market Average	4 Leading the Pack	5 Best in Class
Leadership and Culture 	Traditional and hierarchical	Increasing sharing of responsibility	Adaptive mindset	Fully collaborative, everyone is accountable, unafraid to fail	Self healing learning organization
Customer Centricity 	Lack of clarity on what we are delivering or why	We share a vision to make things simpler and more flexible for customers	We identify and fix our consumers experience gaps	We are a data driven and innovative, focusing on customer satisfaction	We are transforming the customer experience
Insight Led 	Opinion based and anecdotal due to lack of insight	Access to data and reporting improving	Decisions based on previous performance driven targets	Insight focused decisions based on latest customer data	Driven by predictive analytics and optimized using automated learning
Collaborative, Self-Directed Teams 	No access to required people	Silos in clusters around projects or tech	Cross functional, but with split commitments	Fully staffed squads, co located as far as possible with a common purpose	Self organizing squads extend to wider business
Iterative Processes 	Linear and waterfall	Training in agile practices	Flexible, with some embedded Agile methods	Fully Agile methodologies	Iteratively improving processes to deliver greater value
